Corporate and Interiors Experience

It is critical to your business strategy that your facilities are patterned to realize your intended business outcomes. How people interact, respond to their environment, and communicate with the global marketplace is impacted by current trends and best practices in the workplace. It is our mission to work with our clients to understand your unique business in order to design engaging and flexible work environments that help facilitate productivity while clearly representing your company's culture.

Project types include:

- Building Management / Tenant Design Services
- Legal
- Collegiate Administrative Offices
- Manufacturing
- Corporate Headquarters
- Real Estate
- Financial and Insurance
- Retail Banking
- Corporate Interiors

“The employees and management of LORD could not be more pleased with the outcome of the largest project in company history. Construction was completed under budget, and three months ahead of schedule.... The beautiful finish and modern design elements... have earned LORD numerous compliments from key customers and suppliers and is already favorably impacting our ability to recruit critical technical talent.”

Steve Pattison
Director, Advanced Process Development
LORD - Global Operations Development

Leadership

David M. Thal, AIA

David heads our Corporate Studio; his award winning experience bridges both Architectural and Interior Architectural projects for a variety of Corporate Clients. Known for his ability to listen, he easily engages with varied user groups, bringing them to consensus on appropriate yet unique and inspiring design solutions. David has worked with a variety of clients from building owners and property managers to leasing agents and tenants.

Sarah J. Solberg, IIDA, NCIDQ

Sarah, the lead Interior Designer in our Corporate Studio, contributes her extensive talent through collaboration across the project team. From the onset of a project, Sarah works closely with our Corporate Clients guiding them through the programming process, laying out efficient and effective spaces and selecting finishes and furnishings. Sarah has an innate ability to create engaging interior environments that complement the architectural features.
